Since January, the CISSS des Îles team has been vaccinating the target clientele, as determined by the Ministère de la Santé et des Services sociaux (MSSS). For the moment, the residents of the various nursing homes, caregivers and health care workers, among others, have taken advantage of their vaccination and the interest rate is excellent.

Vaccination is contributing to the collective effort that will make it possible to stop this virus more quickly. It is also a gesture of generosity towards your loved ones whom you wish to protect and keep healthy.
